Patrick,

The revised layout looks fine, although I still do not an access road to the (2) 20,000 gallon water tanks on Sheet C-104. Please have the correct scales on each sheet when you resubmit.

Best regards,

James Pine

Hello Ashley,

I am checking to see if you and James had a chance to review the rugged and TDS plot plans to see if they are adequate. Also, when can we get together to discuss the miscellaneous items that are outstanding. We are pushing to wrap this up by the end of September and push the EIR out for public review. Please let me know.

Thanks,
